Members' drawings and the subscription and repayment of members' capital

Profits are determined, allocated and divided between the members after the finalisation of the accounts. Unallocated profits are included within "members' other interests".

Capital requirements are determined by the designated members and are reviewed at least annually. All members are required to subscribe a proportion of that capital, with the amounts being determined by the designated members themselves.

Statement of members' responsibilities in respect of the accounts

Legislation applicable to limited liability partnerships requires the members to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the LLP and of the profit or loss of the LLP for that period. In preparing those accounts, the members are required to:-

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed;
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the LLP will continue in business.

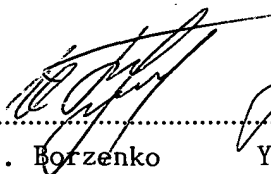

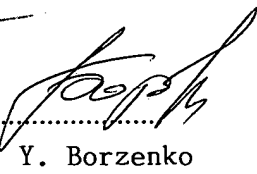

Anglong LLP

The members are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the LLP and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Limited Liability Partnership Regulations. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the LLP and thence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

These responsibilities are exercised by the designated members on behalf of the members.
